The cotton market started steady in tone, with prices 1 to 2 points higher, and gained additional strength as the session progressed, from light covering and staunch support from the buil ranks. The bears were somewhat disconcerted by a decidedly better class of English news than was anticipated, and persistent statements by reliable parties that better weather would make little difference as to the volume of receipts. Speculation during the morning was on an exceptionally small scale, there being few investment orders, while southern and foreign reports were almost destitute of purport. There was some delay experienced by broken wires. Additional rains were forecasted in the cotton belt. Spot hardened, while weekly teports from Fall River told of well-cleaned-up stores of spot cotton, and urged demand for near-by future delivery goods at last selling prices. The late market for futures was a quiet one, but prices steadily advanced on light buying by shorts and a scarcity of sellers. The close was steady and 3624 points higher. Estimated receipts at the ports for the day, 10,000 bales, against 6,480 last week and 26,034 last year. For the week, 20,000 bales, against 6,480 last week and 26,034 last year. To-day's receipts at New Orleans. 2,776 bales, against 13,212 last year, and at Houston, 2,851 bales, against 5,868 last year.

Baltimore. February 17.—Calves—Continued scarce, in demand, and firm all the week. Choice, smooth veals, of small to medium size might even draw a fraction over quotations, as such are badly wanted. We quote as follows: Strictly choice veals, per pound, 7671-16.; good veals, per pound, 61-2@62-ic.; rough to good, per head, 35g310.

Sheep and Lamba.—Business is checked by the lack of offerings to work upon though there is no doubt that good fat lambs and choice sheep, if here, would be quickly "snapped" up at a premium over quotations. We note a good inquiry for desirable stock. We quote as follows: Spring lambs, good to choice, 51-2@6c, per pound; poor, rough stock, 41-2@5c, sheep, per pound, choice, 444-12c.; good, per head, 33-5@34; inferior, per head, 32-3$2.50; old bucks, per head, $1.50634.50.

CHICAGO, February 17.—Trade in cattle was slow to-day, and most of the offerings sold at low prices, the average quality being poor. Average sales were about 15c, lower than late sales last week. Fancy cattle, $5.50456; choice steers, $4.4985.75; medium steers, $1.566, $1.55; beef steers, $4.565, choice steers, $4.9985.75; medium steers, $1.566, $1.55; beef steers, $4.1565.50; Texas steers, $3.50635; calves, $4.3$7.00; Early sales of hogs were made at steady prices; but, affer the offerings were largely disposed of, the market weakened about 21-2c.
